

I have throughly enjoyed the convenience and the national content of satellite radio. Any disruption or elimination of this service would do great harm to the accesiblity of this truly important medium.